Inspiring World-Changing Organizations

DEDICATED TO IMPROVING HUMAN HEALTH AT EVERY SCALE

AT EVERY STAGE of his career, William A. Haseltine has been at the forefront of medical research and application. From educating a generation of doctors at Harvard Medical School and designing the strategy to develop the first treatment for HIV/AIDS, to leading the team that pioneered the development of new drugs

He has a unique talent for helping groups unlock their most complex and intractable challenges, and summon the energy and will to fight the necessary uphill battles that make all the difference in the result.

based on information from the human genome, William has stayed laser focused on delivering world-changing results. It's no surprise, then, that he was named one of TIME Magazine's "25 Most Influential Global Business Executives."

When William has the honor of addressing large groups—he has spoken at illustrious venues from the United States Chamber of Commerce to international summits—he fuses his extensive experience and ambitious vision into a powerful speech that leaves audiences inspired and energized. He has a unique talent for helping groups unlock their most complex and intractable challenges and summon the energy and will to fight the necessary uphill battles that make all the difference in the result.

If your organization truly aspires to change the world, William A. Haseltine has proven time and again that he can shine a light on a viable path, inspire your pursuit, and help you focus on the most effective next steps.

FOCUSED ON ACHIEVING THE "IMPOSSIBLE"

HAVING CROSSED MANY thresholds in his career that few would dare to dream were possible, William has an uncanny ability to see a path forward where most would see only an obstacle. Whether he is speaking with leaders in the healthcare ecosystem, government officials, or business executives, William's speeches will bolster your group's dedication to the cause and inspire them to find and implement new solutions.

His insightful and uplifting speeches are tailor-made for:

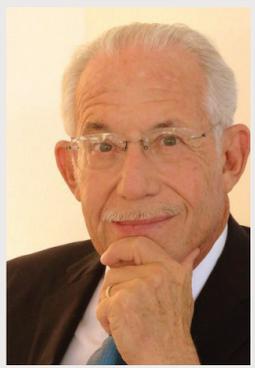

- ◇ Healthcare executives who want to learn the secrets to transformative success, as evidenced by the turnaround of NYU-Langone captured in World Class
- ◇ Governmental and international entities looking for systemic solutions to societal issues
- ◇ Business leaders who need to stay ahead of their competitors and instill a culture of performance in any business environment
- ◇ Leaders who set the course for nonprofit organizations that must apply their efforts in a focused way to drive results with limited resources

ABOUT WORLD CLASS

WORLD CLASS OFFERS an inside view into the remarkable turnaround of an underperforming medical center in New York City into a world class institution. Ten years ago, NYU Langone Health was losing tens of millions of dollars and ranked in the bottom third of academic medical center hospitals for quality and safety. Today, the medical center delivers world class patient care and generates a substantial surplus.

In World Class, scientist, businessman, and expert in biotechnology and healthcare system development Dr. William A. Haseltine showcases NYU Langone Health as an inspiring model for all business leaders to emulate. Using real world conditions to highlight the information science and requisite interpersonal relationships needed for business transformation, World Class provides universal lessons for policymakers and leaders in all fields.
